Resolution in Support of Local 1000 Contract Bargaining

Whereas; Quality public services are a value to all Californians, and,

Whereas; Investing in the workers that provide those services is of the public interest, and,

Whereas; Wage stagnation erodes the quality of the services that all Californians need, and,

Whereas; The central principles of the labor movement are unity and solidarity, and,

Whereas; Labor's most important task is to secure a fair contract for represented employees that protects their hard-earned rights, while improving wages, benefits and working conditions, and

Whereas; Our brothers and sisters of SEIU, Local 1000, are currently engaged in contract negotiations with their employer, the State of California, and,

Whereas; The public employees of SEIU, Local 1000 are working to improve the quality of the service they provide to all Californians.
